

PEF Recording Chart

Record the highest of 3 blows each time

PAGE NO.

Use the same meter • Morning + evening • Highest of 3 readings

Name	Personal Best PEF	Doctor	Start date
	L/min

GREEN	YELLOW	RED
80–100% of personal best	50–79% of personal best	Below 50% of personal best

Important: Use these zones only if they are part of your clinician's asthma action plan. Your action plan takes priority.

Day	Date	Morning PEF L/min	Evening PEF L/min	Symptoms / reliever / notes
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20

How to use this chart: At each session, perform 3 blows and record the highest value. Bring the completed chart to your clinic review.

If your PEF suddenly falls or you have worsening asthma symptoms, follow your written asthma action plan and seek medical care when advised.

Record the highest of 3 blows each time

PAGE NO.

Use the same meter • Morning + evening • Highest of 3 readings

[illegible]

How to use this chart: At each session, perform 3 blows and record the highest value. Bring the completed chart to your clinic review.

If your PEF suddenly falls or you have worsening asthma symptoms, follow your written asthma action plan and seek medical care when advised.